The day was humid and the proceedings were hurried as fast as possible consistent with the ends of justice.

STRENGTH IN UNION.
The managing boards of the Associated Charities, the Florence Crittenton Home, and the Humane society will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the assembly room of the water users' building for the purpose of laying the foundation for a local board of charities and correction. The meeting is not in the nature of a consolidation, but merely to secure a more perfect co-operation under a general committee.

PRELIMINARY HEARING.
W. C. Meeks and T. L. Knowles, employees of the American Smelting and Refining company, who are under arrest on a charge of negotiating irregular checks were given a preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon by Judge Johnston. The defendants are represented by B. E. Marks. Mrs. Knowles sat by her husband during the brief proceedings. The men were each held in $1000 bail for a hearing at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

REGULAR THING.
Frank Lightfoot who lives at 201 East Polk street is forming the habit of being robbed. After while he may get so that he actually enjoys it. About six weeks ago $50 was stolen from a room on the first floor of his house. After that he kept his loose change upstairs, but last night the operation was repeated. This time $100 disappeared. Included in the amount are two checks on the Valley bank for $21.75 each. In each burglary valuable jewelry was left untouched. The police have been entrusted with the secret and the chief in formulating a theory.

WHERE IS C. C. PAYNE?
In behalf of relatives in Sweden, the royal consulate of Sweden has appealed to the Phoenix board of trade to lend its assistance in locating Clarence C. Payne, known in his native land by the name of Carl Johansson. He was born in Dalarna, Sweden, and has not been heard from since December, 1898, when he wrote from Minneapolis to relatives that he had been a student of the University of Arizona from 1894 to 1898 and that it was his intention to become a lecturer on religious and philosophical topics. The university referred the consulate to the Phoenix board of trade.

A PRISON ORCHARD.
Governor Hunt spent Saturday night at the state prison, returning to Phoenix Sunday afternoon. Asked yesterday if he had any new plans to divulge concerning prison affairs he said the only thing he could recall of special interest is that the management has decided to begin turning the 160 acres of desert with which the prison is surrounded, into a garden spot as soon as possible. The first step will be the planting of a considerable number of olive trees. They will not only be ornamental, but it is hoped, fruitful. And the fruit will probably be of a sort the employees and convicts will not pick off the trees and eat up before it has matured.

LECTURE THIS AFTERNOON.
General A. J. Sampson will deliver a lecture this afternoon before the Woman's club in the clubhouse in "Personal Observations in Palestine." This lecture was delivered by the general last September in the First Methodist church of Alliance, Ohio, a church with a membership of over a thousand and concerning it the president of the Mount Union college, W. M. McMaster, wrote to the general in part, as follows: "I desire to express to you my appreciation of the sympathetic and yet truthful way in which you described the present conditions in Palestine and the generous way in which you treated the Greeks, Christians and Mohammedans. The close attention given by the large audience is a tribute to your power of describing what you have seen."

CHINK MUTINY NOT EXPLAINED.
Observers Are Still Puzzled to Know the Reason for Recent Uprising of the Soldiery in City of Peking.

[Associated Press Dispatch]
PEKING, Mar. 4.—The commander of the British troops at Fengtai has received reports that mutineers had been driven off Sunday, had been reinforced and are moving down the railway. The Eniskillen (soldiers) are now guarding that section, being shifted to advantageous positions. It is reliably reported that Yuan Shi-kai has brought into Peking a bodyguard from his home province of Honan. He shifts his troops about in Peking almost daily, one day giving the old style troops command, the next day turning them to the barracks and leaving police and gendarmes in control. The police are mostly Manchurian and Manchurian regiments are proving more loyal than others. The reason for the mutiny is still causing speculation. It is believed the soldiers were incited to rebellion by the prospect of being disbanded, being required to cut off their queues, and because of loss of faith in Yuan. The strange form the rebellion took shows fatal ignorance and lack of discipline. Many of the lower classes don't know the meaning of the republican flag which is floating everywhere instead of the dragon.

Yuan Shi-kai's son addressed the soldiers today, imploring them not to ruin the country. The men wept and said they feared Yuan's going south would cause their disbandment and consequent starvation. They declared the riots were a protest against their chief's going away and that hereafter they would remain faithful.

THE COLISEUM.
This evening's bill at the Coliseum is a decided departure from that of last week. The picture offering will be supplemented by a vaudeville bill of unusual excellence. The stellar feature is the Stroud Trio, Bert, Violet and Baby Violet, the latter the youngest of American rag time comedienne. The act is rich in musical features and the little one is a revelation. Voorg Bros. have a novelty musical act that has appeared the Weatherford-Bireley combination is a strong number in which singing, talking and imitations are entertainingly blended.

A new picture program with two educational numbers will finish what promises to be a good bill.

THE EMPRESS.
There is some comfort in visiting the Empress theater through the simple fact that you never fear finding an ancient picture. The nightly changes assure you something new and the system of securing photo plays from several houses guarantees the most recent releases. The feature pictures for the coming week include a wonderful film showing the Roman court in Nero's time. The five reels offered this evening are of the highest order and the illustrated songs are new and Miss Irion has to new vocal selections.

BUILD A HOME IN 1912 AND REJOICE
every anniversary thereafter like a lot of your friends who gave up the chase for elusive riches long ago and started to build their fortunes in the good old substantial way of our Pilgrim Fathers. Remember, "A rolling stone gathers no moss," and nothing will stop a family from rolling quicker than a comfortable home. It gives husband, wife and children something to work for and once you get such a union of action from the whole family, success is bound to crown your efforts. We've been preparing for a lot of home building here this year and have a stock of lumber that outclasses in quality even that which your grandfather used when he built his home sixty years ago, and you know that's "going some." Come in and see it.
